Greetings!

We are pleased to send this Re-enactor Packet inviting your unit to participate in the 2010 “Battles for the Armory”! While this is the 13th Annual Event, it is our 11th year as sponsors and we are extremely excited to offer an event bigger and better than ever before.

Last years event was a great success and it allowed us to reach some of our long-standing goals in helping to preserve and promote our honorable Southern Heritage. Your participation this year will allow us to continue our commitment to the restoration and preservation of the only standing Confederate Armory right here in Tallassee, and to donate to various other worthy Southern historical preservation projects such as the Magee Farm in Saraland Alabama and the John W. Inzer House museum in Ashville, Alabama.

Check our program for ladies activities on Saturday morning and for those of you who like a good old fashioned barn dance, we have the musical group “St. Andrews String Band” consigned to play for your enjoyment and dancing pleasure on Saturday evening. Also, don’t forget Church services on Sunday morning in the Barn.
